Upon arrival officers made contact with the complainant Alexis Arkansas and who had stated that the suspect, b/m 33 years old, Justin Jackson had discharged a weapon inside the apartment then drove off of the apartment complex in a 2019 grey Nissan Sentra with Texas plates MXC6667. Officers were alerted by the onsite private security that the complainant Alexis Arkansas had seen the grey Nissan Sentra pulled into the apartment complex driven by suspect Justin Jackson and heading towards the back of the complex. Officers immediately proceeded to search for the suspect Justin Jackson. Officers located the grey Nissan back up against the wall by the exit gate and suspect Justin Jackson inside on the driving seat with all the windows rolled up. Suspect Justin Jackson was presumed to be in possession of the weapon used in the deadly conduct earlier on apartment #264. Officers positioned squad cars , at approximately 20 feet distance, facing the suspect's vehicle. Officers exited vehicles and stood at a safe distance using squad cars as hard cover. At this point a field supervisor and additional cover was requested. An officer using his squad car as hard cover began to give loud verbal commands to the suspect to step out of the grey Nissan Sentra with his hands up. Suspect Justin Jackson rolled down the driver' side window and stated that he had returned just to get his cell phone then rolled up the window. Officers continued to give suspect Justin Jackson commands to exit his vehicle with the hand up and again suspect Justin Jackson rolled down the window and stated that he only wanted his cell phone in response I told suspect Justin Jackson that we wanted to talk to him. Suspect Justin Jackson again rolled up his window and did not exit the vehicle. Over ten minutes had passed since making contact with suspect Jackson when a gunshot sound was heard coming from the inside the suspect's vehicle. Dispatcher was advised that a gunshot had been heard. Verbal commands were given to suspect Justine Jackson to rolled down the window but to no avail. Officers observed that suspect Justin Jackson was laying back on his seat and not moving. Officers approached the suspect vehicle and also saw that the suspect was seating still with a handgun on his lap. They retreated back thier vehicles. DFR was requested. PES Officer Oviedo, element H224, who responded to process the deadly conduct at apartment #264 helped to retrieve the gun from suspect Justin Jackson. At that point officers observed the gunshot wound on the right side of suspect Jackson's head. DFR #57 carted suspect Justin Jackson to the ambulance to commence cpr then transported to the Presbyterian Hospital. A gun check was made on the recovered handgun, a CE Cobra .380 Caliber, with serial number CP099519. The weapon check revealed no record. H224 placed the recovered weapon in the property room. Sgt. Bynum responded to the scene.
