Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

At approximately 2230 (10:30PM) Wednesday, July 25, 2018 Rice Police Officers conducted a traffic stop on Interstate 45 on a vehicle for a traffic infraction. As part of their investigation during the stop an occupant of the vehicle was placed in custody for Public Intoxication. This person was transported to Navarro County Jail.

During the book-in process at the jail this person removed an item, suspected to be illegal narcotics hidden in/on his person, and ate it. Rice Police and Navarro County Jail staff immediately placed the individual back in the Rice Police Department vehicle and the person was transported to Navarro Regional Hospital for medical evaluation/attention.

During the transport the individual started to convulse. Emergency signals on the squad car were activated and Navarro Regional Hospital staff were advised of the situation and upon arrival met the individual at the emergency entrance where hospital staff immediately took the person and started emergency medical procedures.

The individual was pronounced deceased at Navarro Regional Hospital shortly thereafter. The Texas Rangers, due to the death of an individual, have beep called in to conduct an outside investigation. Next of kin has been notified. The individual has been transported to the Medical Examiner, upon request of Judge Hickman, in the Dallas area. The cause of death is pending Medical Examiner and autopsy results.
