Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

Deputies responded to an address in reference to a call for service placed by the deceased persons mother. Deceased person would at times be screaming and yelling and then would completely calm down momentarily until he would begin screaming again. Deputies called for EMS to come to the scene. EMS arrived at the residence and the deceased agreed to go to the hospital to be checked out by medical professionals. Deputies and EMT personnel walked the deceased to the back of the ambulance to transport to UT Health in Tyler, Texas. as the deceased was near the ambulance to board he attempted to strike one of the EMT personnel. Deputy stepped between the deceased and the EMT and was struck in the nose. Deceased was placed on the ground and hand restraints were applied. The deceased began kicking at Deputies and leg restraints were applied. Deputies reported the deceased began banging his head on the ground while the restraints were being applied. Immediately after the leg restraints were applied Deputies told EMT personnel that deceased did not appear to be breathing. Deputies removed the restraints and CPR was started. Deceased was transported to UT Health in Tyler, Texas. Texas Ranger Michael Adcock was called to the scene to investigate this incident. Henderson County Sheriff's Office was notified of the death on June 5, 2019 at 16:21 hrs. An autopsy was performed by American Forensics in Mesquite, Texas. the results of the autopsy are pending due to the wait for toxicology results.
