Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

On July 7, 2019, at approximately 17:17, Francisco Llamas was arrested for Public Intoxication (warrantless / on-view) and a warrant for Public Intoxication by the Lufkin Police Department. He was brought to the Angelina County Jail where he was screened, but was too intoxicated to sign anything at that point. Llamas was placed in a Detox Cell to give him some time to try to sober up. During his time in the Detox Cell and unbeknownst to the jail staff, he began to cough up blood, and spit it into a Styrofoam cup. He did not advise any staff of this at any point. Instead, Llamas would wipe up the blood with a tissue, and then flush it down the toilet.

Shortly after being placed in the Detox Cell, around 18:00, he was provided some food and liquid, even though this was several hours after evening chow. The next morning, on July 8, 2019, the inmate was provided breakfast and ate almost everything on his tray. At approximately 04:30, the shift sergeant had Llamas blow into an intoxilyzer to get a reading on his BAC. Later, at approximately 09:17, the shift lieutenant repeated this process and at approximately 13:13, an officer provided the inmate 2 cups of Gatorade. At approximately 15:54, the shift lieutenant brought more Gatorade and evening chow. Llamas did not eat the meal provided at this time. At approximately 16:00, the nurse checked Llamas' blood sugar. BAC test once again given at approximately 16:34.

It was at approximately 21:50 when the inmate accidently knocked over the cup of blood. The control room officer observed the spilled blood on the floor via a surveillance camera in the detox cell, and immediately notified the shift sergeant in booking. The shift sergeant responded to the detox cell, where Llamas was attempting to wipe up the blood. The sergeant immediately called for an ambulance. At approximately 22:11, the EMS arrived at the jail and proceeded into the booking area with a stretcher. The inmate was released from the Jail and EMS transported him to the Hospital.

The inmate was released from the jail on 7/8/2019, as he was in Jail for a Class C Misdemeanor. It was on 08/07/2019 that a Deputy at the Angelina County Sheriff's Office learned from an Officer with the Lufkin Police Department that Mr. Llamas had passed away. This facility was unaware of the status of the inmate due to him being released from the jail a month prior to his death. Furthermore, the hospital would not provide the jail with updates on Mr. Llamas because he was released from custody.
