On 1/30/2019 at approximately 2049 hours, a State Parole officer approached a residence at 13115 W CR 127 to check on a parolee that is a registered sex offender who gave this address as his place of residence. The parole officer knocked on the door and was met at the door by a white female in her 50's who pointed a pistol at her. When questioned about the parolee the female stated that the parolee did not live there. The parole officer left and contacted the Midland County Sheriff's Office requesting that deputies check the residence for the parolee and investigate the female carrying a weapon. At about 2210 hours, two deputies from the Midland County Sheriff's Office arrived at the residence and knocked on the door announcing that they were with the Sheriff's Office and took up positions away from the front door. A white male answered the door and pointed a weapon at the Deputy, the deputy ordered the male to drop the weapon with no response the Deputy fired at the male striking him in the chest and the male collapsed inside the residence. A white female came out of the residence and was immediately removed from the residence and checked for weapons. Responding Deputies arrived at the residence and assisted checking for any additional persons and performed first aid on the downed male until EMS arrived on scene. The Texas have been called in to conduct the investigation. The case will be referred to the Midland County District Attorney for presentation to a Midland County Grand Jury.
