Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

Officers responded to the report of a female being shot at a residence in the 1900 block of Fairfax in Paris, Texas. First officer on the scene made entry to the residence through an open front door and heard fighting going on somewhere in the house. Locating two men in a bed room, one man had another man in a 'choke hold' with both men on a bed. The one being choked was on the bottom, face down and was deemed the suspect by the officer. The officer went to place the suspect into custody and the other man let him loose, jumped up and went to look for his wife who had been shot. As the officer attempted to take the suspect into custody, the suspect came into possession of the officers side arm. The officer and suspect began fighting over the handgun with the second officer arriving on scene. The second officer was not aware that the two were fighting over a gun and exclaimed that he was going to 'tase' the suspect, this even with the first officer hollering that he (the suspect) has my gun and telling the suspect to let it go. The suspect continued to actively resist the first officer and refused to relinquish control of the officer’s handgun. During the struggle the gun fired striking the suspect in the head. The woman who had been shot four times by the suspect made it out of the residence to a neighbors house where 9-1-1 was called.
