Summary:

On May 26th, 2019 at about 2030 hours officers of the Odessa Police Department were dispatched to 7209 Donatello St in reference to shots fired. Numerous callers reported to the Odessa Police Department that a white male was shooting into the air.

Evidence revealed that before officers arrived the suspect exited his residence and fired a round into the air while standing on his porch. After several minutes he fired several more rounds and walked back into his residence.

After officers arrived, the suspect exited his residence with a rifle. Officers gave commands in an attempt to gain compliance, but the suspect failed to comply and went back into the residence. Minutes later, the suspect exits his house and can be seen facing officers and points a handgun in the direction of the officers at which point officers fire on the suspect. Officer advised over the radio that the suspect was down. Officers quickly secured the scene and requested staged EMS personnel to administer medical care to the suspect. EMS advised that there was nothing they could do for the suspect and a vital sign strip was printed that indicated no vital signs.
