Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

On May 3, 2020, Sergeant Tom Allison and Deputy James Whitt responded to 206 Mountain Springs Drive for a domestic disturbance. The actor came to the location after a protective order expired and was armed with a handgun. Dispatch relayed information that a victim at the location was being assaulted and that the suspect was looking for more weapons. The actor was screaming at the victim and at one point held a gun to her head. When deputies arrived, a female victim came running out of the house yelling at the deputies that her daughter was inside the residence with the suspect. The daughter, who was fourteen years old, was hiding in a closet in the same room where the actor was located. Deputies entered the location and confronted the actor who told them repeatedly to stay out and that he was not going back to jail. Deputy Whitt was armed with his Sig Sauer 9mm semi-automatic pistol and Sgt. Allison was armed with his Areo X15 .223 semi-automatic rifle. When the deputies located the actor, he pointed a Glock semi-automatic pistol at Deputy Whitt. Both the actor and deputies opened fire with their weapons and the actor was struck multiple times and died at the scene. Deputy Whitt received minor injuries during the shooting.
