Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

Officers were dispatched to a convenience store for a group of 4 individuals arguing, with one male threatening another with a gun. A detailed description of the male actor was given to include his mode of transportation; a bicycle. The first officer to arrive in the area saw the actor riding a bicycle in the neighborhood adjacent to the convenience store. He followed the actor, but did not immediately stop him due reports of the actor being armed and the proximity of an elementary school. The officer relayed this information to responding officers. As the actor rode his bicycle near an alley entrance, the officer alerted him with his police siren. The suspect immediately fled, riding his bicycle into the alley. The officer lost sight of him before locating him again on an adjacent street. Once again, the actor fled, but this time on foot. The officer lost sight of him again, relayed this to the dispatcher, and continued searching for the actor on foot.

A short while later, a second officer located the actor in a backyard. He commanded the actor to approach him, but the actor refused and fled on foot. The second officer immediately pursued him on foot, jumping over four fences while traversing multiple yards. As the officer closed the distance with the actor near the intersection of Wycliff and Willenbrock, the actor produced a handgun and discharged it at the pursuing officer. The officer was struck twice in his right leg which caused him to fall onto a lawn on the southwest corner of the intersection. The injured officer returned fire, striking the actor, who continued to run from the officer. Unable to continue, the injured officer reported his status over the air and remained at the location awaiting assistance.

After shooting the officer, the actor threw his handgun onto a residential roof and continued running. He ran into a field south of the neighborhood and was seen by the first officer he had run from. The officer did not know that the actor had abandoned his handgun. As he observed the actor running south through the field, he warned other officers over the air that the actor was still carrying a handgun. The officer then positioned himself at a business on the north side of Rigsby Avenue to cut off the actor's escape. When the actor appeared from behind the business, he looked directly at the officer, made an unintelligible sound, and raised both arms. The officer saw what he believed to be a gun in the actor's hand and fired once. He dropped to the ground and was taken into custody by a cover officer. It was at this time that the actor was found to be wearing a small black cast on his left wrist and hand which, given the circumstances, appeared to be a gun to both a witness and the police. EMS arrived at the location to provide first aid and pronounced the actor deceased.
