Summary:

On 12/01/2021 at 0930hrs., officers responded to a domestic violence call involving the subject discharging a hand gun while arguing with his girlfriend. Subject and victim both left the residence. Officers located the subject operating a motor vehicle a short distance from the residence, and attempted a traffic stop. Subject engaged officers in a pursuit, and was almost immediately involved in a two car accident with a third party. Subject exited from his vehicle, displayed a firearm, and stole a second vehicle at gun point. Subject again engaged officers in pursuit, and shot multiple rounds at the officers in multiple locations. The second vehicle stopped working, due to the subject having struck solid objects with vehicle during the pursuit. Subject exited from the second vehicle, and stole a third vehicle at gun point, continuing to engage officers in pursuit. Subject continued to shoot at officers, with officers returning fire. Pursuit ended on I-10, traveling west bound in El Paso, after subject struck a work zone barrier truck. Subject was found to have been struck by approximately 8 rounds, believed to have been fired by officers during the length of the pursuit, which had lasted approximately 50 minutes.
