Summary:

On October 30, 2022, at approximately 06:10 PM, Dallas police officers responded to a disturbance armed encounter call at 3410 Metropolitan Ave, Dallas, Dallas County, Texas. The caller to 911 stated there was a man at location with a gun pointing it at people. The suspect was described as a black male about 54 years old, wearing a yellow/black shirt, blue jeans, and purple shoes.

Officers Zachary Wohlwend, #11039 and Thomas Hartmann, #12320 arrived on scene and located the suspect matching the description provided by the 911 caller. The suspect was later identified as Donathy

Wayne Doddy B/M/61. Officers were then approached by a civilian witness who warned them that the Mr. Doddy had a gun on him. Officers observed Mr. Doddy with a gun in his pocket and took cover behind vehicles that where parked at scene and drew their weapons.
The officers asked several people standing near the suspect to leave the area and few of them complied with the officers' request. The officers began calling the Mr. Doddy by name to get his attention. Officer Wohlwend knew Mr. Doddy by name and sight from a previous arrest.

While calling the suspect's name, the suspect turned towards the officers and placed his hand on his gun. Officers then gave the suspect loud verbal commands to get his hand off his gun. Mr. Doddy then drew his gun and ran towards the officers. Mr. Doddy discharged his weapon at least twice as he ran in the officer's direction. Both Officer Wohlwend and Hartmann discharged their weapons at the suspect as he ran towards them. Mr. Doddy was struck by the officers' gunfire and collapsed to the ground. Officers placed the suspect in custody and once the crowed was under control began CPR on Mr. Doddy. Mr. Doddy was transported to Baylor Hospital, where he was pronounced deceased at 6:31 p.m. by the attending physician.

Autopsy was performed at the Dallas County Medical Examiners Officer. Cause of death was gunfire.
