Summary:

On December 8th, 2023, Lubbock Police Officers responded to 4423 Jarvis Street #1 in reference to a domestic disturbance. Officers made contact with family members of Manuel Guillen in front of the residence. Manuel Guillen was observed at an open front window of the residence and was seen to be armed with two knives. He made several alarming comments to the officers indicating he had suicidal ideations.

Officers determined Manuel Guillen was inside the residence by himself and began to move family members away from the residence to further their investigation. Several officers maintained positions in the street in front of the residence, but close enough to watch Manuel Guillen. Manuel Guillen crawled through the open front window of the residence and sprinted at officers, carrying a steak knife and butcher knife. Officers gave Manuel Guillen several commands to stop, and he refused each command. Officers discharged their weapons at Manuel Guillen as he was sprinting at them while carrying two knives.

Manuel Guillen was subdued and taken into custody. Officers rendered first aid and started EMS. Manuel Guillen was transported to University Medical Center, and pronounced deceased at approximately 2310.
