Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

On May 11, 2023 at approximately 2124 hours, Juan Carlos Piedra Ceballos was sitting in his vehicle at 3328 Willow Creek Dr., Irving, Texas. Carlos Munguia walked out of his apartment to take trash to the dumpster. Munguia began yelling at Piedra Ceballos, possibly because his music was too loud. Munguia produced a handgun and shot Piedra Ceballos several times, killing him. This was witnessed by Munguia's sisters.

Munguia ran back to his apartment, gathered some belongings, and left on foot.

An arrest warrant was issued for Munguia for the murder of Piedra Ceballos.

During an interview with his brother, he stated that Munguia had made comments in the past about having a shootout with police officers if they ever tried to arrest him.

An emergency ping was initiated to try to find Munguia. He was turning his phone off and on which made the pings inaccurate. His family assisted with finding Munguia, relaying information to the police about where he said he was at.

On May 12, 2023 at approximately 1940 hours, officers with the Irving Police Department Fugitive Unit received information that Munguia was in the area of the 3000 block of W. State Highway 183. The officers responded to the location and found Munguia walking in the grass, near the roadway. When officers attempted to arrest Munguia, he ran from them. While running, he turned back towards one officer and pointed a pistol at him. Three officers fired, striking Munguia several times. Munguia fell to the ground and was provided first aid by officers until the Irving Fire Department arrived. He was transported to Parkland Memorial Hospital by the Irving Fire Department.

Munguia was pronounced deceased on May 12, 2023 at 2025 hours at Parkland Memorial Hospital.

The handgun that Munguia pointed at the officer was loaded. A preliminary NIBIN match shows this to be the same handgun used in the murder of Piedra Ceballos.
