Summary:

On 04/26/2024 at 2027hrs, San Antonio Police Officers responded to a restaurant at 3400 Fredericksburg Road for a disturbance. The caller reported a male was in the restaurant taking off his clothes and throwing trash around. Arriving Officers did not locate the male at the restaurant, rather they located him across the street lying underneath a SUV parked in front of another business. Officers were able to remove the male (the decedent) from under the vehicle by pulling him by his legs. The decedent resisted the officers. The officers rolled the decedent over to his stomach and handcuffed him. The decedent was not wearing pants or underwear and was wearing a jacket. Officers requested EMS to the location once the decedent was handcuffed. While waiting for EMS, officers observed the decedent was not responding and life saving measures were administered. EMS arrived and would ultimately pronounce the decedent at the scene.
