Officers were dispatched to disturbance. Upon contacting the complainant, the suspect ran from an apartment, towards the parking lot where the officers were, yelled "let's get this party started," and began shooting a handgun at the officers and complainant. 2 of the rounds hit the patrol car within a few feet of the officers and complainant. One officer returned fire and struck the suspect. Officers provided medical attention to the suspect who died a short time later.

It is not clear at this time why the suspect began firing a weapon at the officers and complainant. The officers had only been on scene approximately 15 seconds before the shoot occurred.
