Summary:

On 5/19/24 at approximately 1914 hours, two San Antonio Police Officers were dispatched to 17803 La Cantera Terrace for a narcotics related call. When officers arrived at the location, they were alerted to a stolen vehicle parked at the location. The vehicle was unoccupied. The officers parked their patrol vehicles behind the stolen vehicle and went to investigate their original dispatched call. While walking to their call, the officers observed the decedent walk to and enter the stolen vehicle. The officers called out to the decedent and ran towards the parked vehicle as the decedent entered the stolen vehicle. The decedent then drove over the curb and into the grass area in the direction of the officers and a citizen walking her dog. Both officers, fearing for their safety as well as the safety of the citizen, fired their duty weapons at the decedent. The decedent was struck by the gunfire and the stolen vehicle came to rest against a pole. The officers extracted the decedent and administered care until the arrival of EMS. EMS would transport the decedent to University Hospital where he would ultimately be pronounced deceased.
