Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

On January 6, 2025, officers with the Houston Police Department's Northeast Patrol Division received a call regarding criminal mischief in progress. The caller reported that a black male was breaking into and damaging vehicles in the area of 7300 Caddo Street and was in possession of a sharp object.

Officers arrived in the area and located the suspect matching the description provided in the call slip. Three officers attempted to make contact with suspect verbally. the suspect fled on foot, heading westbound on Bretshire Drive and then north onto Homestead Road.

The officers attempted to subdue the suspect to complete the arrest. During the struggle, the suspect was able to get on top of one officer and straddle his torso as they wrestled in the main lanes of traffic. The suspect then reached for the officer's holstered duty weapon, grabbing it in an attempt to gain control of it. The officer and suspect continued to struggle over the weapon as the officers gave verbal commands to the suspect to stop grabbing the weapon.

The suspect was able to discharged the officer's duty weapon once, while still in its holster, as two additional officers attempted to stop him. In response to the discharge and out of concern for his own safety and the safety of his fellow officers, one of the officers discharged his own duty weapon twice, striking and killing the suspect.
