Summary:

On September 24th 2025, at 1146hrs ECSO received a call for service in refence to a subject with a gun. Upon arrival the actor had fled the area in a motor vehicle after sexually assaulting 2 females at the residence. The actor also took a victim from the residence at gun point. Deputies were able to locate the actor several miles away from the home. The actor was parked on the side of the road and was in the process of sexually assaulting the victim for a second time. Once Deputies began giving verbal commands to exit the vehicle the victim exited the truck from the rear door half naked from the waist down. The actor jumped back into the drivers seat and began to evade Deputies. Deputies were chasing the actor on a public roadway when the actor began to fire rounds towards the pursuing Deputies. The chase lasted through several county's where the actor attempted to car jack a passing vehicle, and attempted to collide with several vehicle on the roadway. The actor was able to exit his vehicle and jump into a second truck which was parked with the keys left in the vehicle. The actor continued to evade Deputies at which point Deputies were finally able to set a road block and clear the roadway to use deadly force against the actor. The actor continued to raise his firearm towards Deputies. ECSO Deputy was able to fire rounds at the actor finally sticking the actor. The actors vehicle came to a stop at this time and Deputies were able to clear the vehicle and take the actor into custody. The actor suffered gunshot wounds the arm and head. The actor was transported to the nearest Hospital where he passed away from his injuries. Texas Ranger were contacted and took over the scene.
