Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

On June 16, 2026, San Antonio Police officers were dispatched to 129 Red Hawk Ridge for a disturbance involving a firearm. Initial information indicated that gunshots had been heard and that the back door had been shot out. Officers coordinated their response and arrived at the location. Officers called out to the occupants but received no response. They located a broken glass door and entered the residence. Officers cleared the lower level and the majority of the second floor before encountering a locked interior door. Based on the totality of the circumstances, officers forced entry to the locked door, then took up a position in a nearby restroom to wait. Officers then heard several gunshots followed by screams. They immediately entered the bedroom and observed two minor children near a restroom. Officers evacuated the children from the room and located a second closed door, a closet. Believing a person inside might be injured, officers opened the closet door and were immediately fired upon. Officers returned fire and held their position. After a brief pause, officers attempted to clear the closet and were again fired upon. One officer was struck in the abdomen and was extracted from the scene. A second officer remained alone in the bedroom. A short time later, a person attempted to exit the closet but stopped after the officer gave commands. A single gunshot was then heard from inside the closet. The officer discharged his firearm toward the closet as he exited the room. The residence remained surrounded. SAPD SWAT and Crisis Negotiators responded to the scene. After prolonged attempts to reach the occupants were unsuccessful, OC gas was deployed into the residence. A short time later, a drone was flown into the residence and located two deceased individuals. Officers entered the residence with EMS and confirmed both deceased.

The investigation to date is consistent with a murder-suicide. At the time of this report, there is no indication that officer-involved rounds struck either occupant.
