Summary:

On Sunday, August 16, at approximately 12:06 a.m., Mission Police Officers responded to 1622 Oblate Avenue in reference to a report of a distressed male subject. Upon Arrival, Officers made contact with an adult male subject who appeared highly agitated and refused to communicate or cooperate with officers.

A short time later, the subject walked up to the door holding a knife in his hand. In an effort to de-escalate the situation, a less lethal weapon was deployed. The male subject then exits the house and began to aggressively swing his knife towards the officers, a few moments later the male retreated into the home. The subject then placed one arm around the neck area of an elderly female while continuing to hold the knife in his hand.

In defense of the citizen, the officers discharged their duty weapons, striking the subject.

Emergency medical personnel responded to the scene, and the subject was pronounced deceased at the scene.
